

Port Engineer

Company: Newcruz Offshore Marine Pte Ltd
Location: Saudi Arabia

Responsibilities:

- ❖ To develop and oversee the implementation of vessel routine preventative maintenance programs in accordance with Company requirements and regulatory standards to improve vessel safety and efficiency.
- ❖ Inspect vessel equipment and its documentation for conformance with technical and performance standards.
- ❖ Coordinate within internal and external departments to ensure that all operations are carried out safely and in conformance with applicable laws and regulations.
- ❖ Communicate with different nationality of crew members to discuss any issues they may have.
- ❖ Manage OSV Planned Maintenance System.
- ❖ Manage strategies to control expenses on vessels and ensure assets are maintained at a high level.
- ❖ Assist in any ad-hoc duties, projects and activities as and when required.

Requirements:

- ❖ Minimum 5 years' experience as C/Engineer serving onboard vessels
- ❖ Minimum 3 years' experience as Port Engineer or in similar capacity
- ❖ Holding Class 1 COC Engineer certificate
- ❖ Well versed with OSV operations

- ❖ Familiar with DP Operations an added advantage
 - ❖ Able to communicate with different nationality of crews
 - ❖ Able to work independently and as a team
 - ❖ Good interpersonal skills and able to work well with others in a fast-paced working environment
 - ❖ Proficient in MS Office
 - ❖ Familiar with Saudi Arabia Offshore Operations and Shipyards in Middle East
-
- ❖ Willing to be located and based in Saudi Arabia
 - ❖ Salary Package will commensurate with experience